WHAT MAKES THIS CAMP SPECIAL?

Our mission is to improve the performance skills and broaden the knowledge of individual musicians through a comprehensive curriculum designed for the varying ability levels of the participants. We offer:

- Nationally recognized artists, teachers and conductors
- Private Lessons (additional costs)
- Comprehensive program including large and small choral ensembles
- Dedicated, experienced staff
- Well-equipped, comfortable facilities
- Six hours of instruction per day
- Performance in at least one choral ensemble during camp
- Planned, supervised recreational activities during appropriate non-instructional times. (Basketball, volleyball, and table tennis are among many options for participants.)
- Counselors, artists-teachers, and conductors hand-picked from across the nation, based on their musical skills and rapport with young people.

ELIGIBILITY

- Participants must have been enrolled in school choir during the 2012-2013 school year.
- Senior High campers are those completing grades 9-12 in Spring 2013.

AUDITIONS

- All campers must participate in auditions on the first day of camp.
- Lists of specific audition material to be performed are available on our website at music.uark.edu/outreach
- Auditions will also include vocalization and ear training tests.
- Camp staff assigns participants to the ensembles in which they will be appropriately challenged.
- Ensemble placement determines the camper’s schedule for the week, and the group in which they will perform during the final concert.

PRIVATE LESSONS

- Private lessons are available in half-hour sessions. All campers are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to learn from our expert teaching staff.
- In order to allow everyone an opportunity to receive private lessons, students in the Sr. High Choir Camp are limited to two lessons each.
- You must send payment ($15 per lesson) for private lessons with your camp registration. No lessons will be sold at camp.

FACILITIES AND FOOD

- Resident campers are housed in an air-conditioned dormitory with adult counselors.
- Meals are served at the dormitory cafeteria.

FEES

- “Resident” fees must be paid by all students staying in the dorm, and include lodging, all meals, camp insurance, and tuition. Dorm space may be limited, so early registration is encouraged.

  - $395 Early Bird Tuition (postmarked by May 17)
  - $430 Regular Tuition (postmarked May 18 – June 7)

- “Commuter” fees are paid by day campers, and include tuition, camp insurance, and all lunches and dinners.
